

Bullslaughter Bay, Pembrokeshire

John 'Warwick' Smith

Sold

Description

John 'Warwick' Smith (1749-1831)
Bullslaughter Bay, Pembrokeshire

Inscribed on original mount: Bullslaughter Bay - not far from the Eligog Stacks - This deep inlet is narrowed & surrounded by stupenduous Cliffs & Sea-worn Caverns./No part throughout this rude & far extending Range of Coast surpasses the Wild Scenery of this Sequester'd Bay, where its fractured Rocks intermix with rude & detached Arches/in wonderful display and mark the matchlefs work of nature's Architect -
Pen and brown ink and watercolour over traces of pencil 14 by 22.4 cm., 5 1/2 by 8 3/4 in.