This watercolour which dates from 1843 is based on sketches executed on Palmer's honeymoon trip to Italy from 1837 to 1839. On 30th September 1837, he married Hannah Linnell, the eldest of the artist John Linnell's nine children and on 4th October they set off for Italy reaching Rome in mid November. They stayed in Rome until May 1838 and again from January to May 1839 before returning home. This is drawn in what Palmer called his favoured 'little long' format which he adopted on his return from Italy.
